Sleek Pendant

As human beings continue to be negatively impacted -- on a regular basis -- by flickering computer monitors, irate bosses, cell phones, emotional stress, tabloid television, and traffic jams, Qlink has come as an elixir. Q-Link products tune up the human biofield through a resonant effect that harmonizes energy and helps an individual to navigate smoothly through a stressful world. The new Q-Link is chic, with a sleek, white dual-tone design. The one and one-half inch triangle with beveled edges has two distinct sides, each making a unique statement. It can be worn by both men and women and be worn all the time -- as a signature piece, dressed up or down. Internationally acclaimed designer Neville Brody designed the new sleek pendant.

What is more, these sleek pendants help in retaining greater stamina throughout the day. Qlink users sleep well, with less nervous tension. Not only humans, Q-links have been proved to be effective for pets also. The Sleek Qlink for pets can help protect animals from harmful electro magnetic frequencies, hip ailments among other effects. Interestingly, the SRT inside the Q-Link for pet contains a fewer number of frequencies than the human Q-Link range. The Pet Q-Link comes especially with round lock ring for attaching to collar or harness of pets.

The term Qlink is derived from 'Quantum Link' because the technology works at the fundamental quantum level. The Qlink containing the stronger frequencies works like a master tuning fork, constantly reminding the body of its healthy frequencies and thereby helping it to self-correct on a continual basis. Qlink is most effective when worn right next to the skin or directly on top of clothing. With benefits galore, Q-link pendants have almost no maintenance. Completely waterproof, people are advised to take a shower, swim with their sleek pendants on. Many people find sleeping in their Qlink means they sleep more soundly and wake better rested.

The Qlink sleek pendants have been sportspersons' delight for years. Qlink wearers have won over 150 PGA tournaments since 2000. Qlink is the only scientifically proven high-tech health product that enhances mental and physical performance of athletes.

The Sleek Pendants:

- Take the stress out of the game
  - Optimize your performance, consistently
  - Stress relief on and beyond the golf course
  - Improve your focus and concentration
  - Keep players calm under pressure
  - Help lower handicaps
  - Give you more energy level
